

idfx

INSPIRATION FOR INTERIOR DESIGN PROFESSIONALS

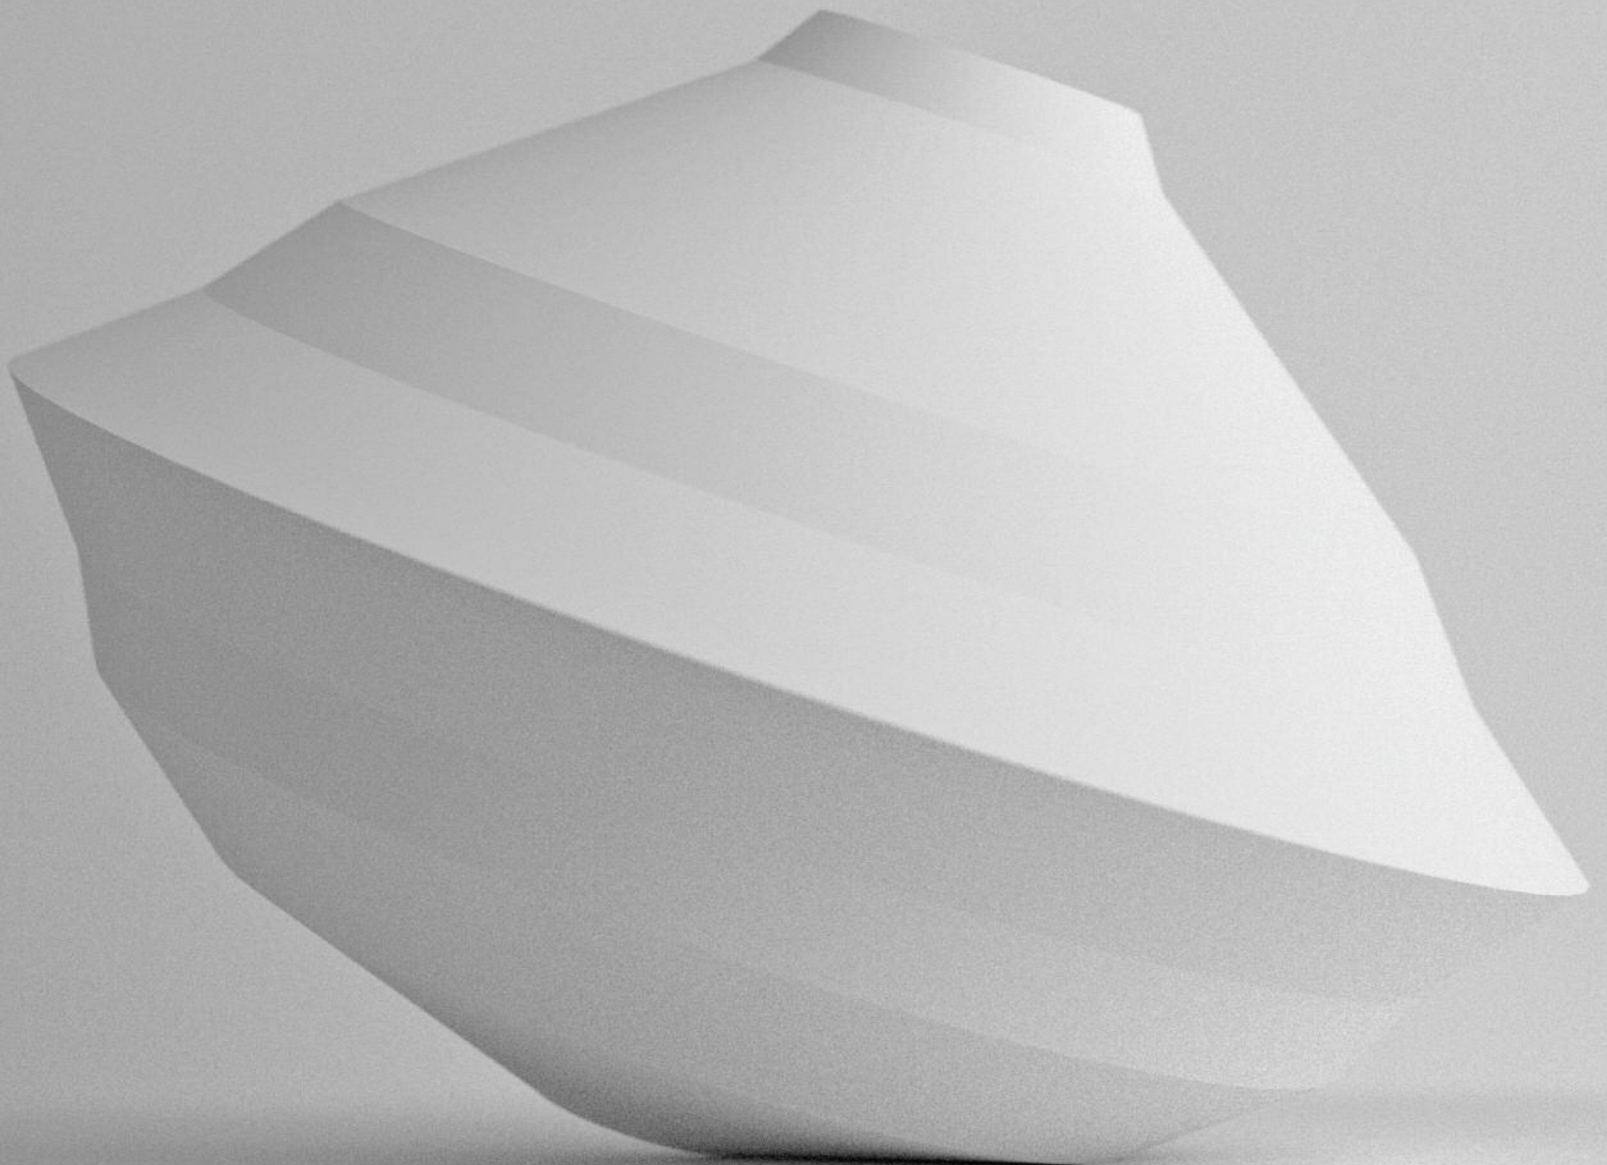

www.idfxmagazine.com

GRAND HOTELS

Chic case goods make storage sexy in the world's top destinations

FABRIC FOCUS

Products, predictions and profiles

Out of this World

Futuristic forms herald tomorrow's trends at Paris and Cologne

MARCH 2010 / £4.99

42 | MAISON ET OBJET

01

03

05

06

01 Alessi

Alessi showed a selection of charming and practical pieces from a host of famous design names. The bamboo forms of the Blow Up collection, designed by the Campana brothers, included this 44cm-high table. www.alessi.com

02 Art et Floritude

Art et Floritude's stand was designed by French interior designer of the moment, Pierre-Yves Rochon. The company originally made ceramic flowers and these skills have now been extended to lighting. www.artetfloritude.fr

03 BD

Jaime Hayon returns to bd to create this Lounger chair. Minus the quirky elements which feature in his work for other brands, this chair is elegant and classic, in various colours with leather either or fabric upholstery. www.bdbarcelona.com

04 Imperfettolab

This is the trademark of Italian designers Verter Turroni and Emanuela Ravelli who are based in a small town near Rimini. This new, striking piece, Lucilla, over two metres high, is cast from fiberglass. www.imperfettolab.com

05 Neology

Christian Ghion presented his first work for Neology at this year's show. The Stone sofa comes in a two- and three-seater version. The latter is shown here in leather over a solid beech and polyurethane structure. www.neology.tm.fr

06 NOCC

Soundwaves morph into design in a series of pieces by Paris-based design team NOCC. The name of an object is spelled and recorded and the resulting soundwave is then rotated into a 3D form. www.nocc.fr

04

