Committee-Gallop Workshop
Harry Richardson & Clare Page UK

This duo compile crafts and design, working together as Committee, which they founded in 2001 after graduating from Liverpool Art School. They create lamps, rugs, furniture, textiles and wallpaper with a surreal-Brit touch. They also lead artistic projects such as Plastic Relics and an archeo-prospective interpretation of our waste via their atelier-gallery, Gallop Workshop, open to contemporary artists. CD

NOCC - Juan Pablo Narango & Jean-Christophe Orthlieb FR

Guided by a conceptual vision and a common scientific spirit, Juan Pablo Narango and Jean-Christophe Orthlieb created NOCC in 2008. NOCC uses humour to convene archetypal or poetic industry codes, questioning the utility of the objects. CD

Lhoas & Lhoas
Pierre & Pablo Lhoas BE

Brothers Pierre and Pablo Lhoas work out of their Brussels studio on architectural, interior design, scenographic and product design projects with a mix of complimentary agreement and dissent. Their XYZ shelves by KaZaar are a reflection of such dichotomy being 'at the same time simple yet sophisticated in the way they are designed' explains Pierre. GD

Spijkers en Spijkers
Truus & Riet Spijkers NL

The AW11-12 collection of SIS by Spijkers en Spijkers, the fashion brand belonging to Dutch sisters Truus and Riet Spijkers, has been inspired by the 'Fast Ladies' of the 1920's who were the first women to enter the world of racing and aviation. Just like these 'Fast Ladies', Spijkers en Spijkers find it important that women feel free to chase after their dreams! JV

Les M. Studio
Céline Merhand & Anais Morel FR

Working under the brand M, their work recently caused a buzz at VIA and the Biennale of St-Etienne. Nominated for the Grand Prix de la Création de la Ville de Paris in 2010, their work, which includes the Cocoon armchair, is now being produced by Superette (LU). Interaction and imagination are also on the cards with their new Halo mirrors. LC
